I can ...

I can ...

Beginning Japanese 第3課: The Ins and Outs of Schools in Japan

Note and do not have (exist and do not exist). I can understand and give instructions in Japanese such as "please take out a pencil. I can say what I have next and what tine i will be doing it. I can be more expressive with my Japanese by using ending I can be more expressive with my Japanese by using ending I can be more expressive with my Japanese shrines and temples I can talk a little about yearlor temples I can talk about the simple comparisons. I can talk about the simple comparisons. I can talk about yearlor temples I can talk about the simple comparisons. I can talk about the simple comparisons.	前:	時間目
I can state things that I have and do not have (exist and do not exist). I can say both specific and and give instructions in Japanese such as "please take out a pencil. I can talk and what tine i will be doing it. I can be more expressive with my Japanese by using ending temples I can talk albout grade levels. I can talk about when and which periods I have simple comparisons. I can state by what means something is door. I can talk about when and which periods I have what classes. I can state by what means something is comparisons. I can talk about the periods I have what tine i will be doing it. I can talk about when and which periods I have what time is in Japanese and say what time is possible and say what time is about when and which periods I have what classes. I can talk about the Japanese school calendar I can be more expressive with my Japanese by using ending I know a little about temples I can talk about school uniforms. I can talk about school uniforms. I can	n-Do Statements understand and give insturctions in Japanese such as "please take out a pencil. I can say both specific and general times when classes are: 9時です。 and 毎日です。 I can talk about when and which periods I have what classes. I can say beth specific and general times when classes are: 9時です。 and 毎日です。 I can talk about when and which periods I have what classes. I can state a few differences between schools in Japan and in my country. I can say what I have next and what tine i will be doing it. I can talk a little about weather temperatures. I can make simple comparisons. I can state by what means something is done. I can be more expressive with my Japanese by using ending I know a little about Japanese shrines and temples	things that I have and do not have (exist and do not	use a few words to describe others (adjectives	basic information about Japanese schools and	in Japanese and say what time something	I can say and write and talk about my class schedule in Japanese.
I have next and what tine i will be doing it. I can be more expressive with my Japanese by using ending I can talk a little about weather temples I can make simple comparisons. I can talk a little about what means something is done. I can talk a little about school uniforms. I can talk a little about school uniforms.	understand and give insturctions in Japanese such as "please take	specific and general times when classes are: 9時です。	about when and which periods I have	few differences between schools in Japan and in	I can talk about the afterschool activities others and I have.
expressive with my Japanese by using ending I know a little about I can talk about school uniforms. I can talk about school uniforms.	I have next and what tine i will be doing	little about weather	simple	what means something is	I can talk about the Japanese school calendar.
particles.	expressive with my Japanese by	about Japanese shrines and	about school	I can	I can

I can ...

I can ...

I can ...