

4b Reporting on a Schedule

- ✓ I can talk about my family.
- ✓ I can talk about my classes and what periods they are.
- ✓ I can use the conjunction でも to make more interesting compound sentences.
- ✓ I can talk about time and use particles appropriately when I do.
- ✓ I know how to talk about what “tool” is used for different activities and chores.
- ✓ I can talk a little about the weather.

You have been asked to make a podcast about your school day. Include general information about your school as well, such as the name, whether it is large or small, some after-school activities, etc. Talk specifically about what time each of your classes begin and/or end. First write an outline of what you plan to say; then make your oral presentation. Be sure to introduce yourself when you begin speaking, and to thank your audience when you are done. Your podcast should take 2.5 to 3.5 minutes.
