Scenario

Your Japanese friend's grandmother has offered to take you shopping for your birthday. However, you have just taken your birthday money and gone shopping with friends. Write a short note to your friend's grandmother, thanking her for her offer, describing who you went shopping with, where you went, why you went, what you bought, and a comment about your overall experience. Would you return to that same store? Your note should have an opening, a body, and a conclusion. Begin your letter with (name) 様へ.
