UNIT 10 Assessment: Interpersonal Speaking 1

Shopping for that Special Occasion

Learning Targets

- ✓ I can make some weather predictions
- ✓ I can politely make, accept, or decline invitations
- ✓ I can say that I want to or don't want to do something

Scenario

You are going into your favorite store to find formal wear for an upcoming event and you can't get the dorky song your Japanese teacher made you learn out of your head. You keep humming it as you shop and unfortunately, the clerk is Japanese and recognizes the song. In addition, the clerk decides that since you are learning Japanese that this is the time for you to be in full immersion as you shop. You think that maybe, if you talk to the clerk in Japanese, you'll get a discount, as they each clerk has a handful of 50% coupons in their hands. When you are asked what you can be helped you with include these types of things in your conversation:

· that you want to buy something for a special day
· what colors and sizes you would like/need
· if you can try them on, and if you like them that you would like to buy them
· (Don't forget that you need footwear and to ask about that 50% off coupon (わりびきけん)!
